

Dipartimento Architettura Ferrara

The David Azrieli School of Architecture The David and Yolanda Katz Faculty of the Arts Tel Aviv University

A WALKTHROUGH ARCHITECTURE AND URBAN PLANNING IN ISRAEL AND PALESTINE, TODAY.

Three conferences by Prof. Arch. Amnon Bar Or, visiting professor, The David Azrieli School of Architecture, Tel Aviv University, Israel

Scientific coordination       Prof. Francesco Alberti, Prof. Gastone Ave, DA, University of Ferrara, Italy         1       Tuesday Sth April 2022 H16.00-18.00       The city of Tel Aviv Jaffa - East or West? Discussant: Daniele Pini, former DA Professor of Urban Planning, Unesco consultant         2       Thursday 2022 H14.30- 16.30       Conservation of the built heritage in the Holy Land in light of local and global political events in the 20th and 21st centuries         3       Wednesday 4th May 2022 H14.30-16.30       The lecture will focus on conflicted issues in preservation, facing the struggles for the hegemony and collective memory of various cultural situation in The Holy Land (Israel / Palestine). The lecture will focus on conflicted issues in preservation, facing the struggles for the hegemony and collective memory of various cultural societies of different ethnic and religious background. Discussant: Alessandro Massarente, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design         3       Wednesday 4th May 2022 H14.30-16.30       Modern architecture in Palestine from 19th century to present times, western and local influences Discussant: Antonello Stella, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design         3       Wednesday 4th May 2022 H14.30-16.30       Modern architecture in Palestine from 19th century to present times, western and local influences Discussant: Antonello Stella, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design         3       Wednesday 4th May 2022 H14.30-16.30       Modern architecture in Palestine from 19th century to present times, western and local influences Discussant: Antonello Stella, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design         Venue: Dipar
<ul> <li>Tuesday Sth April 2022 H 16.00-18.00         The city of Tel Aviv Jaffa - East or West?         Discussant: Daniele Pini, former DA Professor of Urban Planning, Unesco consultant         Conservation of the built heritage in the Holy Land in light of local and global political events in the 20th and 21st centuries         The role of preserving the built cultural heritage is a new (1984) practice in Israel. While preservation of intangible heritage is part of the Jewish culture and religion, the attitude towards preservation of built heritage is a different matter. It stems from different historical and cultural factors connected with the narrative and history of the Jewish people in the Diaspora and in Palestine. The challenge is to preservation, facing the struggles for the hegemony and collective memory of various cultural situation in The Holy Land (Israel / Palestine). The lecture will focus on conflicted issues in preservation, facing the struggles for the hegemony and collective memory of various cultural societies of different ethnic and religious background. Discussant: Alessandro Massarente, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design     </li> <li>Wednesday 4th May 2022 H 14.30-16.30         Modern architecture in Palestine from 19th century to present times, western and local influences Discussant: Anonello Stella, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design     </li> <li>Venue: Dipartimento di Architettura - Direttore: Prof. Alessandro Ippoliti Via della Ghiara 36, 44121 Ferrara, Italy - Tel. +39.0532.293600 +39.0532.293609 Palazzo Tassoni – Salone d'onore - 1° floor     </li> </ul>			Prof. Francosco Alberti, Prof. Castono Avo. DA University of Ferrara, Italy
Sth April 2022 H 16.00-18.00       Discussant: Daniele Pini, former DA Professor of Urban Planning, Unesco consultant         Thursday 28 th April 2022 H 14.30- 16.30       Conservation of the built heritage in the Holy Land in light of local and global political events in the Oth and 21st centuries The role of preserving the built cultural heritage is a new (1984) practice in Israel. While preservation of intangible heritage is part of the Jewish culture and religion, the attitude towards preservation of built heritage is a different matter. It stems from different historical and cultural factors connected with the narrative and history of the Jewish people in the Diaspora and in Palestine. The challenge is to preserve built heritage of other cultures that co-exist in political conflicts with the State of Israel and its Institution, in manners and forms which are unique to the political and cultural situation in The Holy Land (Israel / Palestine). The lecture will focus on conflicted issues in preservation, facing the struggles for the hegemony and collective memory of various cultural societies of different ethnic and religious background. Discussant: Alessandro Massarente, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design         Mednesday 4th May 2022 H 14.30-16.30       Modern architecture in Palestine from 19th century to present times, western and local influences Discussant: Antonello Stella, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design         Venue: Dipartimento di Architettura - Direttore: Prof. Alessandro Ippoliti Via della Ghiara 36, 44121 Ferrara, Italy - Tel. +39.0532.293600 +39.0532.293609 Palazzo Tassoni – Salone d' onore - 1° floor         All conferences may be followed online at the link: meet.google.com/zxh-vrqe-voi			FIU
H 16.00-18.00       consultant         2       Thursday 28 th April 2022       Thursday 14.30-16.30       Conservation of the built heritage in the Holy Land in light of local and global political events in the 20th and 21st centuries         The role of preserving the built cultural heritage is a new (1984) practice in Israel. While preservation of intangible heritage is part of the Jewish culture and religion, the attitude towards preservation of built heritage is a different matter. It stems from different historical and cultural factors connected with the narrative and history of the Jewish people in the Diaspora and in Palestine. The challenge is to preserve built heritage of other cultures that co-exist in political conflicts with the State of Israel and its Institution, in manners and forms which are unique to the political and cultural situation in The Holy Land (Israel / Palestine). The lecture will focus on conflicted issues in preservation, facing the struggles for the hegemony and collective memory of various cultural societies of different ethnic and religious background. Discussant: Alessandro Massarente, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design         31       Wednesday th Modern architecture in Palestine from 19th century to present times, western and local influences Discussant: Antonello Stella, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design         32       Wednesday and local influences Discussant: Antonello Stella, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design         34       Wednesday and local influences Discussant: Antonello Stella, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design         35       Modern architecture - Direttore: Prof. Alessandro Ippoliti         36       Modern architecture	T		022
<ul> <li><sup>2</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>28th April 2022 H 14.30- 16.30</sub></li> <li><sup>2</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>28th April 2022 H 14.30- 16.30</sub></li> <li><sup>2</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>14.30</sub></li> <li><sup>2</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>14.30</sub></li> <li><sup>2</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>14.30</sub></li> <li><sup>2</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>14.30</sub></li> <li><sup>2</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>14.30</sub></li> <li><sup>2</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>14.30</sub></li> <li><sup>2</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>14.30</sub></li> <li><sup>2</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>14.30</sub></li> <li><sup>3</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>14.30</sub></li> <li><sup>3</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>14.30</sub></li> <li><sup>3</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>14.30</sub></li> <li><sup>3</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>14.30</sub></li> <li><sup>3</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>14.30</sub></li> <li><sup>4</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>14.30</sub></li> <li><sup>3</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>14.30</sub></li> <li><sup>4</sup><sup>Thursday</sup><sub>14.30</sub></li> <li><sup>4</sup><sup>Thurs</sup></li></ul>
<ul> <li>2 <sup>28th</sup> April 202 H 14.30- 16.30</li> <li>in light of local and global political events in the 20th and 21st centuries The role of preserving the built cultural heritage is a new (1984) practice in Israel. While preservation of intangible heritage is part of the Jewish culture and religion, the attitude towards preservation of built heritage is a different matter. It stems from different historical and cultural factors connected with the narrative and history of the Jewish people in the Diaspora and in Palestine. The challenge is to preserve built heritage of other cultures that co-exist in political conflicts with the State of Israel and its Institution, in manners and forms which are unique to the political and cultural situation in The Holy Land (Israel / Palestine). The lecture will focus on conflicted issues in preservation, facing the struggles for the hegemony and collective memory of various cultural societies of different ethnic and religious background. Discussant: Alessandro Massarente, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design</li> <li>Wednesday 4th May 2022 H 14.30-16.30</li> <li>Wednesday 2th Modern architecture in Palestine from 19th century to present times, western and local influences Discussant: Antonello Stella, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design</li> <li>Venue: Dipartimento di Architettura - Direttore: Prof. Alessandro Ippoliti</li> <li>Via della Ghiara 36, 44121 Ferrara, Italy - Tel. +39.0532.293600 +39.0532.293609</li> <li>Palazzo Tassoni – Salone d'onore - 1° floor</li> <li>All conferences may be followed online at the link: meet.google.com/zxh-vrqe-voi</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>2022 H 14.30- 16.30</li> <li>in light of local and global political events in the 20th and 21st centuries</li> <li>The role of preserving the built cultural heritage is a new (1984) practice in Israel. While preservation of intangible heritage is part of the Jewish culture and religion, the attitude towards preservation of built heritage is a different matter. It stems from different historical and cultural factors connected with the narrative and history of the Jewish people in the Diaspora and in Palestine. The challenge is to preserve built heritage of other cultures that co-exist in political conflicts with the State of Israel and its Institution, in manners and forms which are unique to the political and cultural situation in The Holy Land (Israel / Palestine). The lecture will focus on conflicted issues in preservation, facing the struggles for the hegemony and collective memory of various cultural societies of different ethnic and religious background. Discussant: Alessandro Massarente, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design</li> <li>Wednesday 4th May 2022 H 14.30-16.30</li> <li>Wednesday 4th May 2022 H 14.30-16.30</li> <li>Wene: Dipartimento di Architettura - Direttore: Prof. Alessandro Ippoliti Via della Ghiara 36, 44121 Ferrara, Italy - Tel. +39.0532.293600 +39.0532.293609 Palazzo Tassoni – Salone d'onore - 1° floor</li> <li>All conferences may be followed online at the link: meet.google.com/zxh-vrge-voi</li> </ul>				onservation of the built heritage in the Holy Land
<ul> <li>16.30</li> <li>20th and 21st centuries         The role of preserving the built cultural heritage is a new (1984) practice in Israel. While preservation of intangible heritage is part of the Jewish culture and religion, the attitude towards preservation of built heritage is a different matter. It stems from different historical and cultural factors connected with the narrative and history of the Jewish people in the Diaspora and in Palestine. The challenge is to preserve built heritage of other cultures that co-exist in political conflicts with the State of Israel and its Institution, in manners and forms which are unique to the political and cultural situation in The Holy Land (Israel / Palestine).     </li> <li>The lecture will focus on conflicted issues in preservation, facing the struggles for the hegemony and collective memory of various cultural societies of different ethnic and religious background. Discussant: Alessandro Massarente, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design</li> <li>Wednesday         <ul> <li>4th May 2022</li> <li>H 14.30-16.30</li> <li>Modern architecture in Palestine from 19th century to present times, western and local influences</li> <li>Discussant: Antonello Stella, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design</li> </ul> </li> <li>Venue: Dipartimento di Architettura - Direttore: Prof. Alessandro Ippoliti</li> <li>Via della Ghiara 36, 44121 Ferrara, Italy - Tel. +39.0532.293600 +39.0532.293609</li> <li>Palazzo Tassoni – Salone d'onore - 1° floor</li> <li>All conferences may be followed online at the link: meet.google.com/zxh-vrqe-voi</li> </ul>	Z	2022	in light of local and global political events in the
<ul> <li>in Israel. While preservation of intangible heritage is part of the Jewish culture and religion, the attitude towards preservation of built heritage is a different matter. It stems from different historical and cultural factors connected with the narrative and history of the Jewish people in the Diaspora and in Palestine. The challenge is to preserve built heritage of other cultures that co-exist in political conflicts with the State of Israel and its Institution, in manners and forms which are unique to the political and cultural situation in The Holy Land (Israel / Palestine). The lecture will focus on conflicted issues in preservation, facing the struggles for the hegemony and collective memory of various cultural societies of different ethnic and religious background. Discussant: Alessandro Massarente, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design</li> <li>Wednesday 4th May 2022 H 14.30-16.30 Modern architecture in Palestine from 19th century to present times, western and local influences Discussant: Antonello Stella, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban Design</li> <li>Venue: Dipartimento di Architettura - Direttore: Prof. Alessandro Ippoliti</li> <li>Via della Ghiara 36, 44121 Ferrara, Italy - Tel. +39.0532.293600 +39.0532.293609</li> <li>Palazzo Tassoni – Salone d'onore - 1° floor</li> <li>All conferences may be followed online at the link: meet.google.com/zxh-vrqe-voi</li> </ul>			20	20th and 21st centuries
3Wednesday 4th May 2022 H 14.30-16.30Modern architecture in Palestine from 19th century to present times, western and local influences Discussant: Antonello Stella, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban DesignVenue: Dipartimento di Architettura - Direttore: Prof. Alessandro Ippoliti Via della Ghiara 36, 44121 Ferrara, Italy - Tel. +39.0532.293600 +39.0532.293609 Palazzo Tassoni – Salone d'onore - 1° floorAll conferences may be followed online at the link: meet.google.com/zxh-vrqe-voi			in I cul a d cor Dia oth and and Th the cu	srael. While preservation of intangible heritage is part of the Jewish ture and religion, the attitude towards preservation of built heritage is lifferent matter. It stems from different historical and cultural factors nected with the narrative and history of the Jewish people in the aspora and in Palestine. The challenge is to preserve built heritage of her cultures that co-exist in political conflicts with the State of Israel d its Institution, in manners and forms which are unique to the political d cultural situation in The Holy Land (Israel / Palestine). e lecture will focus on conflicted issues in preservation, facing e struggles for the hegemony and collective memory of various ltural societies of different ethnic and religious background.
4th May 2022 H 14.30-16.30and local influences Discussant: Antonello Stella, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban DesignVenue: Dipartimento di Architettura - Direttore: Prof. Alessandro Ippoliti Via della Ghiara 36, 44121 Ferrara, Italy - Tel. +39.0532.293600 +39.0532.293609 Palazzo Tassoni – Salone d'onore - 1° floorAll conferences may be followed online at the link: meet.google.com/zxh-vrqe-voi
H 14.30-16.30Discussant: Antonello Stella, DA Professor of Architectural and Urban DesignVenue: Dipartimento di Architettura - Direttore: Prof. Alessandro IppolitiVia della Ghiara 36, 44121 Ferrara, Italy - Tel. +39.0532.293600 +39.0532.293609Palazzo Tassoni – Salone d'onore - 1° floorAll conferences may be followed online at the link: meet.google.com/zxh-vrqe-voi	3
Venue: Dipartimento di Architettura - Direttore: Prof. Alessandro Ippoliti Via della Ghiara 36, 44121 Ferrara, Italy - Tel. +39.0532.293600 +39.0532.293609 Palazzo Tassoni – Salone d'onore - 1° floor All conferences may be followed online at the link: meet.google.com/zxh-vrqe-voi
Via della Ghiara 36, 44121 Ferrara, Italy - Tel. +39.0532.293600 +39.0532.293609 Palazzo Tassoni – Salone d'onore - 1° floor All conferences may be followed online at the link: meet.google.com/zxh-vrqe-voi
Palazzo Tassoni – Salone d'onore - 1° floor All conferences may be followed online at the link: meet.google.com/zxh-vrqe-voi
All conferences may be followed online at the link: meet.google.com/zxh-vrqe-voi
For further information, please email: avg@unife.it			-
	For f	urther infor	mati	ion, please email: avg@unife.it		